

The British Isles

In the northwest of Europe you can see the British Isles which consist of two large islands: Great Britain and Ireland and about five thousand small islands.

The British Isles are separated from the European continent by the English Channel.

The west coast is washed by the Atlantic Ocean and the Irish Sea.

The east coast is washed by the North Sea.

Great Britain or the UK?

The official name of the country is the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

But it is often called Great Britain because the most part of the country lies on the island of the same name.

The capitals:

England – London;

Scotland – Edinburgh;

Wales – Cardiff;

Northern Ireland – Belfast.

The Parts of the United Kingdom

The United Kingdom consists of four parts: England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland.

There are four main nationalities in the country: the English, the Welsh, the Scots and the Irish. Each of them has its own language and culture.

The population of the UK is about 60 million people.

Symbols

The Union Jack is the national flag of the UK.

It is made of three colours (red, white and blue) representing the red cross of England, the white cross of Scotland, and the blue saltire of Ireland.

The flag of Wales consists of a red dragon on a green and white field.

Anthem

The National Anthem of the UK is “God Save the Queen”

BRITISH NATIONAL ANTHEM

God Save The Queen

---

God save our gracious Queen!
Long live our noble Queen!
God save the Queen!
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On her be pleased to pour,
Long may she reign.
May she defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the Queen!

Floral emblems

Each part of the United Kingdom has its own patron saint and floral emblem:

England – St. George and the red Rose,

Scotland – St. Andrew, the Thistle,

Wales – St. David and the Daffodil,

Northern Ireland – St. Patrick and the Shamrock.

The National Symbol of England

The national flower of England is the rose.

The flower has been adopted as England's emblem since the time of the Wars of the Roses (between the royal house of Lancaster, whose emblem was a red rose and the royal house of York, whose emblem was a white rose).

The National Symbols of Wales

The national flower of Wales is the daffodil, which is traditionally worn on St. David's Day. The vegetable called leek is also considered to be a traditional emblem of Wales.

The National Symbol of Scotland

The national flower of Scotland is the thistle, was chosen as such because it saved the country from enemy.

The Symbols of Northern Ireland

The national flower of Northern Ireland is the shamrock. An Irish tale tells us how Patrick used the shamrock to explain the Trinity: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit could all exist as separate elements of the same entity.

The Landscape of the British Isles

The surface of the British Isles varies very much. The north of Scotland is mountainous and is called the Highlands, Ben Nevis in Scotland is the highest mountain (1,343 m), while the south, which has beautiful valleys and plains, is called the Lowlands.

Rivers

There are a lot of rivers in Great Britain (the Thames, the Avon, the Clyde, the Severn), but they are not very long. The Severn is the longest river in the country, while the Thames is the deepest and the most important one.

Lakes

There are also many lakes in the UK, especially in Scotland, the Lake District is the largest National Park in England. It contains a lot of beautiful lakes.

Weather

The weather in England is very changeable.

People in England say that they have no climate but only weather.

London, the Capital of the UK

London is the capital of Great Britain, its political, economic and commercial centre. It is one of the largest cities in the world and the largest city in Europe. It stands on the river Thames which flows into the North Sea, so London is the largest port and one of the main ship-building centres.

Some London's Sights

London has a lot of sights.

The famous landmarks are Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, Tower Bridge, Madame Tussaud's Museum, The Sherlock Holmes Museum, The Tate Gallery and so on.

Big Ben and Westminster Abbey

The Clock Tower of the Houses of Parliament is famous for its big Hour Bell, known as "Big Ben".

Westminster Abbey is the place, where the coronation of nearly all kings and queens have taken place.

Trafalgar Square

There are many nice squares in London. Trafalgar Square is one of them. You can see a statue of Lord Nelson in the middle of this square.

Museums and galleries

There are many museums, art galleries in London.

Madame Tussaud's is a famous museum in London started in 1835 by a French wax sculptor Marie Tussaud.

It contains wax figures of famous people from past and present.

The Sherlock Holmes Museum

The Sherlock Holmes Museum is the most popular museum in London, dedicated to the legendary detective Sherlock Holmes. It is situated near the north end of Baker Street in the central London close to Regent's Park.

Underground

London is connected with the London Underground.

It is the oldest one in the world. The first line was opened in 1870. It was like a tube, that's why it was called the Tube.

English people call the old lines the Tube, the new lines – the Underground. It is associated with a lot of advertisements everywhere.

Double-decker

Visitors of London often prefer to travel by this red bus because they can see a lot of interesting places from the top of a double – decker.

Customs and traditions

These customs are really English.

English people like domestic animals. Every family has a pet: a dog, a cat or a bird.

Also they are tea-drinkers. They prefer to drink tea from cups, not from glasses.

They can drink many cups of tea at once. Usually they drink tea with milk.

Holidays

Christmas is celebrated all around the world. British people like it too, they have it on the 25th of December. The main character is Santa Claus. Children get a lot of presents and sing Christmas carols.

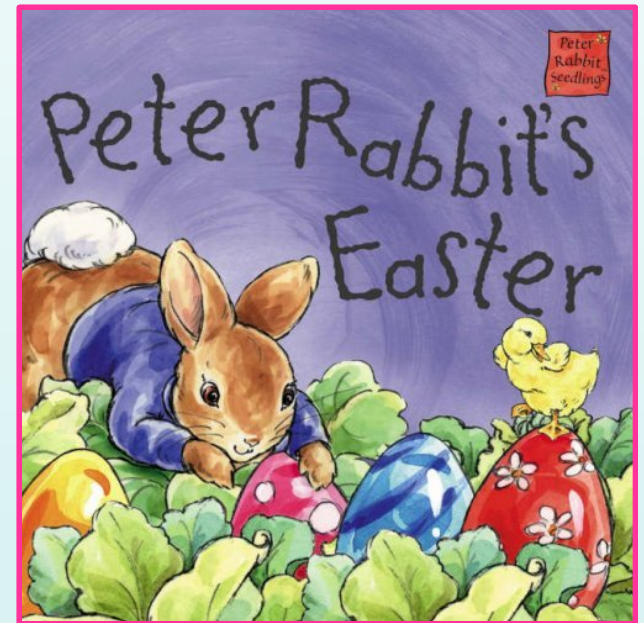

The traditional English dinner on Christmas Day is roast turkey and Christmas pudding.

Holidays

Easter Day is the high point of the year. Easter eggs are important in Britain, too. Children believe that Easter Rabbit hides the eggs in the garden. A traditional food is roast lamb. People give each other chocolate eggs that are wrapped in silver paper.

Holidays

Halloween is celebrated on the 31st of October, it's already well-known in Russia.

On the 14th of February they celebrate St Valentine's Day, the day when people send cards or give red roses or chocolates to the person they love.

English home

The English like their home. They say: “My house is my castle”.

Usually there is a fireplace in the main room of the English house. The English like to sit in front of it; to read newspapers or magazines there.
